

Abstract Submission Guidelines

All presenting authors who wish to submit an abstract must be registered for ASN 2026 first.

Once registered, you will receive a Registration Confirmation Email containing a link to the Abstract Submission Portal. If you are submitting the abstract on behalf of the presenting author, please enter the presenting author's information in registration and the abstract submission.

The abstract submission deadline closes on December 5th, 2025 at 11:59 pm EST. Acceptance notification will be sent out in mid-January 2026.

You are asked to submit your abstract in one of the four themes below.

- Building the Nervous System
- Glial Mechanisms and Injury
- Metabolism, Cellular and Molecular Neurobiology
- Neurodegenerative Diseases

Submitted abstracts from early career stage scientists (graduate students and post doctoral fellows) will be considered for short oral presentations.

Accepted Late-Breaking Abstracts are not eligible for consideration for short oral presentation and will be presented in a poster format.

A submission fee of $60 USD (member) / $105 USD (non-member) applies per abstract.

Graduates and postdoctoral fellows are encouraged to apply for Travel Awards and Career Development Awards. Apply here: The American Society for Neurochemistry - Awards

Follow all instructions in the submission portal when entering, previewing, and submitting your abstract. Before beginning, please note:

1. Abstract content should include:
 - Specific objectives of the study
 - Brief statement of methods (if applicable)
 - Summary of the main results
 - Conclusion with the primary message of the paper
(Statements like “data will be presented” or “results will be discussed” are not acceptable. No figures or tables are allowed.)
 - Acknowledgements
2. Abbreviations:

- Spell out non-standard abbreviations the first time they appear, followed by the abbreviation in parentheses.
- Do not use abbreviations in the abstract title.
- 3. Author and affiliation formatting is automated.
 - Do not include this information in the main abstract text.
- 4. Word limit:
 - The abstract body (excluding title, authors, affiliations, and spaces) must not exceed 500 words.
